Walk-In-Interview for 01 position of Social Worker at Special Cell for Women and Children, Yavatmal district supported by Departments of Home, Police and Women & Child Development, Maharashtra.

The Government of Maharashtra, in particular the Departments of Home, Police and Women & Child Development, Maharashtra have collaborated since 2005 for joint administration of Special Cells for Women and Children programme. This programme is implemented through grants-in-aid to NGOs, and to the Tata Institute of Social Sciences. Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS) itself implements 14 out of the 137 Cells across districts, as well as coordinates, supervises and provides training for the programme personnel through Regional Coordinators. The Special Cell for Women is an initiative providing social services to women survivors of violence, by placing trained social workers within the Police system (2 social workers in a Police office, viz. Police Station /SP Office/CP Office), with a clear understanding that violence against women is a crime and it is the responsibility of the State to prevent and counter the same. The Special Cells for Women & Children is a programme initiated by TISS (Mumbai) in 1984, and it creates space in the Police system for violated women to receive emotional & social support through quality psycho-social-legal services' provision by professional full-time social workers, within the criminal justice system (CJS), where the violence survivor's needs and concerns are addressed within a facilitative environment.

A total of 01 Social worker (preferably having prior direct intervention work experience), are required at present for full-time work at the Special Cell for Women and Children, Yavatmal district. TISS hereby issues this advertisement for said 01 position of social worker, as authorized by State Government, for selection of suitable candidate for the same.

2. Selection Preferences:

The programme's service provision process requires that each Special Cell must have 2 social workers to respond to violated women's own preference & needs, and no less than one woman/female social worker per Cell. Maharashtra-based candidates possessing necessary educational qualification & prior experience of in the social-development sector as detailed in section 3 below will be given preference.

3. The details including job description, eligibility criteria etc. for the position are as follows:

Education and Experience criteria:

- The candidate must have a post-graduate qualification in social work (M.A. in Social Work/MSW) from Central/Deemed/State-Recognised University.
- Candidate should have (a) knowledge of issues of gender & violence against women and interventions in the district and State, and (b) prior experience in direct casework and/or intervention work on women's issues at the grassroot level.
- Candidate must demonstrate willingness to travel, as and when required within Maharashtra as per programme requirements detailed in section on job description below.
- Verbal and written fluency in Marathi and local languages/dialects is essential, and working knowledge of English & Hindi and comfort with the use of computers & Internet is also desirable.

Location and terms of service:

The position is full time and is based in Yavatmal district. The selected social worker will be contractually employed and will be paid a consolidated honorarium of INR 12,000/- per month which will be transferred directly by DWCD. Once appointed, the social worker will be expected to reside in or around Yavatmal district for the duration of their appointment and deputation for full-time work in the Special Cell. Only candidates possessing the above mentioned-experience & qualifications, and in the age group 22-55 years, need apply.

The selected person will be employed on contractual basis as a Social Worker with Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS), Mumbai. The appointment will be made from date of joining to 31st of March in consonance with the financial year, as per Institute procedures, but are extended thereafter based on the availability of funds and performance.
